Booklet is a lightweight and easy-to-use educational Java-based software. It is designed to help students improve their English. For this lesson, we have developed a game to help you practice your English. The game is made up of 30 level packs. Each level pack is a separate unit of the game. Each level pack has four cards with the letters and numbers. If you are not familiar with English, you will need to look at the cards carefully and match the letters to the numbers on the left. Remember the answer is on the right. When you finish a level pack, you need to tap on the Pass button to move on to the next level pack. You will continue to play the level pack until you have answered all questions correctly. You will receive a limited number of free plays for each level pack. You can purchase more free plays for a nominal amount. Below are some sample questions that you can use to practice your English vocabulary. >
